

20th Sunday after Pentecost

A Service of Morning Prayer

Sunday, October 18, 10:15 am

Welcome

Greetings, Friends and Neighbors of St. Timothy's. Thank you for joining us for our worship service.

Opening Sentence

Psalm 105:1

O give thanks to the Lord, and call upon his Name; make known his deeds among the peoples.

Confession

Let us humbly confess our sins to God and one another.

Silence may be kept.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Absolution

Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

Liturgical Greeting

Officiant Lord, open our lips.

People And our mouth shall proclaim your praise.

Officiant and People

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever Amen.

The earth is the Lord's for he made it: Come let us adore him.

A Song of Praise

Canticle 18

Splendor and honor and royal power *
are yours by right, O God Most High,
For you created everything that is, *
and by your will they were created and have their being;
And yours by right, O Lamb that was slain, *
for with your blood you have redeemed for God,
From every family, language, people, and nation, *
a royal priesthood to serve our God.
And so, to the One who sits upon the throne, *
and to Christ the Lamb,
Be worship and praise, dominion and splendor, *
for ever and for evermore.

A Song to the Lamb Dignus es
Revelation 4:11;5:9-10,13

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Lesson

Genesis 25:29-34

Reader A Reading from Genesis.

Abraham was Isaac's father. Isaac was forty years old when he married Rebekah and he asked God for children. Finally, when he was sixty, Rebekah became pregnant. She was so miserable she said, "If this is what motherhood is like, why should I bother?" God said to her, "The reason you are miserable is because you've got two babies, not just one. And you'll see, they'll be as different as two separate nations."

When they were born, one baby was all hairy and red and they named him Esau. The second was born holding on to his brother's foot. They named him Jacob. When they grew up Esau was a hunter and Jacob was more of a homebody. Esau was Abraham's favorite, and Rebekah preferred Jacob.

Jacob was cooking stew once, when his brother came in from the field, starving. He begged his brother for some stew. Jacob said, "You can have some, but first you have to sell me your birthright." (That means that the oldest child always inherited the father's goods, and Esau was the oldest.) Esau was so hungry all he could think about was food. He said, "I'm about to die of hunger, what do I care about my birthright? You can have it. Just give me some stew."

Jacob put the stew in a bowl, but before he gave it to Esau he said, "Swear that it's mine."

Esau said, "Yes, it's yours. Now give me that stew."

Jacob gave him bread and kept filling his brother's bowl with stew. When Esau was finally full, he got up and walked away.

And that's how Esau lost his birthright.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 99

You are the best, God. You are the King.
See the people shake with excitement and fear.
Watch the ground tremble and hear it rumble.
You are the best and all the people know it.
Can you hear them speak your powerful name with wonder?

We will let everyone know that you are a great God.

We will climb your holy hill to worship you.

Here is what the people say to you,
"O mighty King, you treat us fairly,
And everyone comes before you as equals."

We recognize how great you are
And give ourselves to serve you.

You are holy and you amaze us.

We will let everyone know that you are a great God.

We will climb your holy hill to worship you.

Moses and Aaron are your priests,
Samuel was too.
When they called your name, you answered them.
You talked to them from the pillar made of cloud.
And they walked behind you and followed your path.
You answered their questions; you forgave them,
but made them accountable for the wrong they had done.
We will let everyone know that you are a great God.
We will climb your holy hill to worship you.

Gospel

Matthew 22:15-22

Deacon A reading from the Gospel according to Matthew.

The Pharisees wanted to trap Jesus into saying something they didn't like. They sent some of their people to follow him. "Teacher," they said, "We know you are a sincere follower of God. Tell us this then: is it against God's law to pay taxes to the emperor of Rome?" Jesus knew they were out to get him. He said, "Why are you setting me up, you hypocrites?" They gave him a coin that he asked to see. He showed it to them and said, "Whose head is this on the coin, and what is his title?" they answered, "It's the emperor's head on that coin." "So, Jesus said, "So give to the emperor the things that are his. Give to God the things that belong to God."

"Wow – I guess he told us, didn't he?" They were amazed, had nothing to say after that, and they left him.

After the reading

Deacon Hear what the spirit is saying to God's people.

Homily

Abigail Livingood

Creed

We believe in God the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named. We believe in God the Son, who lives in our hearts through faith, and fills us with his love. We believe in God the Holy Spirit, who strengthens us with power from on high. We believe in one God; Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Prayers

Deacon The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Deacon Let us pray.

Litany of Thanksgiving

Deacon Let us give thanks to God our Father for all his gifts so freely bestowed upon us.

Litanist For the beauty and wonder of your creation, in earth and sky and sea.

We thank you, Lord.

For all that is gracious in the lives of men and women, revealing the image of Christ,

We thank you, Lord.

For our daily food and drink, our homes and families, and our friends,

We thank you, Lord.

For minds to think, and hearts to love, and hands to serve,

We thank you, Lord.

For health and strength to work, and leisure to rest and play,

We thank you, Lord.

For the brave and courageous, who are patient in suffering and faithful in adversity,
We thank you, Lord.

For all valiant seekers after truth, liberty, and justice,
We thank you, Lord.

For the communion of saints, in all times and places,
We thank you, Lord.

Above all, we give you thanks for the great mercies and promises given to us in Christ Jesus our Lord;
To him be praise and glory, with you, O Father, and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

Collect of the Day

Almighty and everlasting God, in Christ you have revealed your glory among the nations: Preserve the works of your mercy, that your Church throughout the world may persevere with steadfast faith in the confession of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Officiant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Peace

Officiant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

Announcements / Minute for Mission

Faith Sharing

The General Thanksgiving

Accept, O Lord, our thanks and praise for all that you have done for us. We thank you for the splendor of the whole creation, for the beauty of this world, for the wonder of life, and for the mystery of love.

We thank you for the blessing of family and friends, and for the loving care which surrounds us on every side.

We thank you for setting us at tasks which demand our best efforts, and for leading us to accomplishments which satisfy and delight us.

We thank you also for those disappointments and failures that lead us to acknowledge our dependence on you alone.

Above all, we thank you for your Son Jesus Christ; for the truth of his Word and the example of his life; for his steadfast obedience, by which he overcame temptation; for his dying, through which he overcame death; and for his rising to life again, in which we are raised to the life of your kingdom.

Grant us the gift of your Spirit, that we may know Christ and make him known; and through him, at all times and in all places, may give thanks to you in all things. Amen.

Prayer of Peace

You call us beloved. We belong to you.
You created us in your image; through your very breath you formed us.
Through your Son Jesus, our Teacher, You taught us to call one another beloved, because in belonging to you, we belong to each other.
You told us to see your image in the faces of the forgotten and the oppressed.
Through you we became one family; through your Spirit, we breathe the same breath.
Free us from that which keeps us from perfect love of our neighbors,
Because loving our neighbors is the same as loving you.
Help us to recognize your image in the faces of others.

Blessing

May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with us all evermore. Amen.

Dismissal

Alleluia. Alleluia. Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
Thanks be to God. Alleluia. Alleluia.
